CHAIRMAN (JIM NEUMANN 314-580-0538)

Boating Season: when you live in the Midwest and on the Mighty Mississippi you take what you get. What’s the Best part of boating? FRIENDS. Day Trips, Night Outings, just anchoring out..., and all the events surrounding us at the Alton Motor Boat Club. You get what you put in at the Boat Club, getting friends to join, participating when possible at events or work days- making this the “Best Little Boat Club on the River.” Lots of events are coming up, we are looking to add more bands, more outings, and MORE PEOPLE... The way we grow is by adding your friends, relatives, and people you work with. We always lose a few at the beginning of our Fiscal Year, but we’ve put together an idea that will help Boat Club Members with work hours. This is not to negate the work we must do, but to give you a chance to help the club grow. If we add 5 people each month that is 60 in one year. The Challenge is ON, get a few friends to join this year and get a credit to your work hours. SEE YOU ON THE RIVER.

QUEEN OF HEARTS

Our winner’s pot should be over $9000 by the April 4th drawing. We’re gaining momentum and would like to start selling tickets outside when the weather warms up. We could even do some grilling!!

PAST EVENTS

2 March – Mardi Gras Gala w/ Squeeze Box

A nice crowd was on hand to check out the great band.

23 March – Jon Boat Jamboree

Although its American Flag is still flying, Duck Blind Island yielded to the Mighty Mississippi and is uninhabitable. Did that stop the Jon Boat Jamboree? Of course not. We had a great “Party on the Point!” We were offered hot dogs and brats on the grill, chips, and other snacks. The canines were in attendance and some of them were in the harbor swimming. Will we make it to Duck Blind Island this year? Could we have another Party on the Point?

2019 Boat Club Golf League

The AMBC Golf League will be playing a 9-hole 2-man scramble at Lockhaven on Tuesday nights at 5pm every week starting on April 16th, weather permitting, for 18 weeks thru the end of August with some out dates for holiday weeks. Green and cart fees will apply to the participants. An informational meeting is scheduled for April 2 at 7pm to discuss league participation. The league is open to members and guests as well as open to the public, to also help us build Boat Club membership. League entry fee is $15.00 for the year-end banquet and tip to the Score Keeper at Lockhaven. Come to the meeting, invite your friends in forming a team of 2, 3 or 4-person team to accommodate vacations, work shift responsibilities and other family issues, i.e. kids ball league games, etc. 2 players will play every week from your team with an optional Team $10.00 skins and stobb game. If you are a single player, we will work to help you onto a team.

UPCOMING EVENTS

2 April – Golf League Informational Meeting

Meet Rich Wille at the Club Tuesday at 7pm to discuss the upcoming golf league.

11 April – Deep Fried Tacos / Queen of Hearts

Bryan and Lisa Warden and crew will be hard at work preparing delicious Deep-Fried Tacos. Don’t miss it. Do you have a specialty that you’d like to make on a Queen of Hearts Thursday evening? Let a board member know.

14 April – Kid’s Easter Party

Bring your children and grandchildren to meet the Easter Bunny at the Club as we search for hidden eggs and work with kid’s crafts. There is a signup sheet at the club.

19 April – Good Friday Party w/ Five Long Years Band

The “Five Long Years” Band will entertain us from 7pm to 11pm. Come dine and dance. Peggy will have the full menu available.
